

THE Back-to- School Reset

A SIMPLE GUIDE TO HELP
YOUR HOME FEEL READY FOR THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR.

Organized spaces.
Smoother routines.
More calm for what matters most.

A 3-week plan for a stress-free start

Start small, set a timer for 15 minutes, and see how many boxes you can check off.

WEEK 1

DECLUTTER

Clear out what you don't need to make space for a fresh start.

WEEK 2

ORGANIZE

Put systems in place that make every day life easier.

WEEK 2

RESET ROUTINES

Create simple routines that set your family up for success.

Week One: Declutter

1. Entryway Reset

Make your drop zone, or entryway work for your family.

- ☐ Clear out shoes that no longer fit
- ☐ Remove items that are no longer seasonally appropriate
- ☐ Relocate anything that doesn't belong in the entryway
- ☐ Start the school year with only your everyday essentials
- ☐ Remove broken or unused outdoor accessories (umbrellas, sports gear, etc.)

All Sorts Tip

When everything has a place, mornings feel calmer, and everyone leaves the house with less stress.

Week One: Declutter

2. Kid's Closet Reset

Clear out what no longer fits, or is not seasonally appropriate.

- ☐ Remove clothes that no longer fit
- ☐ Ensure remaining clothes are seasonally appropriate
- ☐ Check shoes for fit
- ☐ Stock new socks and underwear
- ☐ Donate or store items that no longer fit BEFORE school starts.

All Sorts Tip

If it doesn't fit, flatter, or function - let it go.

Week One: Declutter

3. School Supplies

Gather, sort, and set your kids up for success.

- ☐ Gather all school supplies
- ☐ Toss broken, dried out, or unused items
- ☐ Toss any of last school years homework or paperwork not for keepsaking
- ☐ Restock any necessary writing utensils or art supplies
- ☐ Check backpack for any rips/stains/holes
- ☐ Extra step: create a grab and go supply caddy

All Sorts Tip

A little decluttering now, will save you from any last minute project supply or homework stress in the future

Week Two: Organize

4. Pantry Reset

Create easy lunch and snack systems.

- ❑ Toss expired snacks
- ❑ Restock lunch staples
- ❑ Create a grab-and-go snack section
- ❑ Organize portable water bottles
- ❑ Designate a lunch-packing zone that includes lunch boxes, and food storage containers

All Sorts Tip

Keep your most used lunch items together, to make packing easier

Week Two: Organize

5. Homework Station

Set up a space that supports focus

- ☐ Gather school supplies
- ☐ Restock any art supplies and daily-use school supplies
- ☐ Organize and categorize charging cords
- ☐ Refill printer paper
- ☐ Create space for homework that needs to be done, and homework that is completed

All Sorts Tip

A functional and minimal space helps kids stay focused.

Week Two: Organize

6. Family Command Center

A homebase for all things family and schedules

- ☐ Update family calendar
- ☐ Add any known school holidays and early dismissals
- ☐ Add sports and extra curriculars to the calendar
- ☐ Create a spot for incoming school work for review
- ☐ Plan out lunches

All Sorts Tip

Don't overcomplicate this space! It can be at an entryway, laundry room, or kitchen counter.

Week Three: Reset Routines

7. Evening Routine

Set your family up for a smoother morning

- ☐ Pack backpacks the night before
- ☐ Pre-fill water bottles
- ☐ Pack lunchboxes
- ☐ Lay out clothes for the next day
- ☐ Check tomorrow's calendar/schedule to be prepared for the day's events
- ☐ Ensure all completed homework is returned to backpack

All Sorts Tip

Morning you will be thankful you spent the extra 10 minutes tonight to prep for the morning.

Week Three: Reset Routines

8. Before the Bell

Make mornings feel less rushed with a few simple habits.

- ☐ Add filled lunch boxes and water bottles to the backpack(s)
- ☐ Check weather
- ☐ Shoes and applicable outerwear are on, or in backpack
- ☐ Grab anything for afterschool activities
- ☐ Ensure teeth are brushed and any medication/vitamins are taken
- ☐ One last check of the day's schedule before you head out the door

All Sorts Tip

You don't have to be perfect- just prepared.

You've Got This.

One small step at a time, creates a home
that supports your family all year long.

If you need an additional hand creating systems that sustain, reach out today!

@allsortsorganizing
www.allsortsorganization.com

*Thoughtful.
Functional.
Lasting.*